DINING

SJEL & GANE Fine dining in the center of Eidfjord, culinary cooking with local ingredients in one of Eidfjords oldest houses. Sjel og Gane or Heggjagarden as it is originally named, was completely renovated and opened during fall of 2016. On the menu you will find dishes that chef Arthur thinks are the best from the season! With love of food, the dishes are assembled in a simple but thoughtful way. Here you'll find local produce as much as possible. Self-caught seafood, herbs and vegetables and berries from their own garden. They also smoke their own products and produce everything from fish and shellfish. Drinks to complement the food! In addition to imported wines from France, Spain and Italy, they have sourced locally produced drinks, as well as selfpressed apple juice from their own garden.

DINING

GLØYP SPISERI can't have a better location, we are located in the middle of Norway's kitchen garden, where we find the best produce basking in the hills around us. With Steinar Rinaldo's team by the kitchen stove, it takes a lot for something to go wrong, we welcome guests in for a taste of what we have to offer. Steinar Rinaldo was the one who started Norway's first Nordic restaurant in Stavanger, before this he ran the Cafe de France in Stavanger for 10 years, where they were one of the first that started with food and wine in combination.
