KIRKENES

Where Lapland meets the Arctic Ocean

Welcome to Kirkenes, a unique town on the shore of the Arctic Ocean, at 70 degrees North. Kirkenes has a rich and unique history influenced by different cultures from all over the North Calotte. Kirkenes is the north-eastern most town in Norway and was founded in 1826. For hundreds of years, people have harvested from natural riches under the Northern Lights and Midnight Sun. First with farming, fishing and hunting, and later also with mining. The Arctic coastal city Kirkenes offers a great variety of experiences, activities and sights, providing guests with memories for a lifetime. Cruise port Kirkenes is in addition situated on the northern shores of Finish Lapland with its very varied and rich tourism market content. This unique combination allows us to offer content of a magnitude and variety unparalleled in Northern Europe and beyond.
